TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS AND DISCLOSURES

When an agent becomes a member of the California Association of REALTORS®, you will receive access to C.A.R forms through the ZipLogic system. If you are not a C.A.R member and choose not to obtain a C.A.R membership, you may consider using a third-party, public form provider such as First Tuesday that are available at no cost. If you are unsure of the First Tuesday equivalent to a C.A.R form, you may use this cross-reference index to find the forms that are applicable to your transaction and/or those found on the REeBroker Group broker checklist

While the REeBroker Group Inc. recommends the use of legal C.A.R. forms in all real estate transactions, various kinds of forms in specific transactions (short sale, new construction, REO etc.) may also be acceptable.
